In 2007 the organization was officially registered, and the Needle Exchange Programme (NEP) was successfully implemented in collaboration with the Ministry with the Ministry of Health and Wellness across different strategic sites in the country. As such, CUT is known as a pioneer to have initially implemented a needle syringe program (NSP) within the African region, with over 6,000 active beneficiaries till date.

The Collectif Urgence Toxida is a non-governmental organization (NGO) that aims to improve the quality lives of people who use/inject drugs and people living with HIV through its various projects, programs, and interventions.
